THEME SONG SEGMENT: ASK CONAN ANYTHING EXCEPT FOR LAST WEEKEND'S ST.
PATRICK'S DAY.

CONAN

Audience Q and A... this is how sad my life has become...Yes you.

AUDIENCE MEMBER #1

I had a question about where get your hair cut but now I am more curious about what you did last St. Patrick's Day.

CONAN

No one wants to know what I did last St. Patrick's Day. I get my hair cut at Supercuts, yes I am that cheap. You there with the fun shirt.

AUDIENCE MEMBER #2

What did you do last year's St. Patrick's Day? I am just so interested in what you did.

CONAN

It's real unfortunate I can't curse at you otherwise i can be soon heard from your lawyers, I have to say that last St. Patrick's Day was a private.

ANDY

It wasn't private for me. You blabbed to me all about it the very next day.

CONAN

I was still hammered Andy.

ANDY

Could of fooled me you were all laughing, and hugging all the female staff members..

CONAN

We are to suppose to talk it about it Andy, we had to pay off Sonya with a new car.

Sonya

Still waiting for a new car... You signed a contract!

CONAN

Hold on...this wasn't written int he script.

ANDY

Really cause I have it written here...

CONAN

Andy not helping!

JORDAN SCHLANSKY

You also agreed to be a quest cheese taster at my cheese of the month club..

CONAN

This is why I did not want to talk about last St. Patrick's day.

ANDY

You also promised me a pay raise.

CONAN

I did not promise that.

ANDY

You left me this voice message that I saved on my phone.

CONAN

Can I see that.

Andy

How do I know that you would not delete it.

CONAN

Andy please, I am a professional, we have been friends for years, have i ever given you any reason to not trust me?

ANDY

Several reasons yes.

CONAN

We will discuss terms after the show. Any other questions that are not from my staff?

Audience Member #3

Yes. I was with you that night, you owe a thousand dollars in debt to the damages you caused at my bar.

CONAN

We all will talk after the show. Stay tuned for more. Meanwhile, I need to get my checkbook.

END OF SEGMENT.
